Blind Drawing

Introduction

Brief Overview

Dive into the world of communication and creativity with the Blind Drawing Challenge! It's all about understanding and being understood, without seeing what's being communicated. Get ready for laughter, surprises, and a whole new level of team connection.

Purpose

This activity is designed to break down communication barriers and highlight the importance of clear instructions. It's a fun, interactive way to demonstrate how differently we interpret information and the importance of feedback in teamwork.

Ideal Participants

Anyone and everyone from all walks of professional life can benefit from this exercise. Whether you're part of a new team or seasoned colleagues, Blind Drawing will open up new channels of understanding and collaboration.

Materials Needed

List of Materials

- Paper
- Markers or pencils
- A selection of simple images or objects

Visual Aids

- A presentation to guide the session
- Examples of completed drawings for a good laugh and learning points

Training Flow & Timeline

Total Duration: 30 minutes

Time Breakdown for Blind Drawing

- 5 minutes for setting the stage and dividing into pairs
- 15 minutes of drawing time
- 10 minutes for debrief and sharing drawings

Rules for the Blind Drawing

- No Peeking: The drawer cannot see the image or object they are supposed to draw.
- Clear Communication is Key: The describer can only use verbal instructions; no gestures or pointing allowed.
- Time Limit: Each pair has a set amount of time to complete their drawing.

Step-by-step Guide to Blind Drawing

Step 1: Pair Up

Activity: Form pairs, deciding who will draw and who will describe first.

Time: 5 minutes

Step 2: Setup

Activity: Give the describer their image or object.

Time: 2 minutes

Step 3: The Drawing Begins

Activity: Without seeing the image/object, the drawer begins to draw based on their partner's descriptions.

Time: 15 minutes

Step 4: The Big Reveal

Activity: Compare the drawings to the original images/objects.

Time: 3 minutes

Step 5: Switch Roles

Activity: Swap roles and repeat the process for fairness and double the fun.

Time: 15 minutes

Key Learnings & Takeaways

Discover the power of precise communication and the humor in misunderstanding. This challenge sheds light on the need for clarity, patience, and the ability to listen and adapt.

Next Steps

Encourage teams to apply these communication lessons in their daily interactions and projects. Consider a follow-up session to reflect on improvements and further insights.

Feedback

Share your thoughts and laughs! Your feedback helps us make these sessions even more impactful.

Cheating

While we encourage creativity and out-of-the-box thinking, keep the spirit of the challenge in mind. It's not about the perfect drawing but understanding and communication.
